

To whom it may concern:

I recently had the pleasure of meeting Casey Whitworth in the search of selling & purchasing a new residence.

Casey has proved to be hard working, diligent and caring thru all the trials and tribulations of searching, selling, and securing a new home for me. He has been calm and collected throughout, has made suggestions and arranged referrals to people I needed to complete all these transactions. Many hours spent with visits and phone calls.

For anyone looking for a realtor I highly recommend Casey , he is dedicated to his work and will not let you down.

Thank you Casey, again and again.

Sincerely,

Rita Milan

RE CASEY WHITWORTH -- RE/MAX REALTY

Our sincerest thanks to Casey for the great service we received from him. He is so knowledgeable, was able to answer all our questions and give us assurance regarding the sale of our house.

We were referred to Casey by a friend who assured us we would be looked after as though we were family, and we certainly were. He is so thorough, he even went to the trouble of investigating the developer and realtor of the condominium we were going to buy.

Casey has many contacts in the construction, renovating, gardening, cleaning, and moving industries which were a great help to us.

Due to Casey's hard work and diligence, our house sold very quickly and we were able to concentrate on the move to our new home.

Casey, it is very obvious that you immensely enjoy what you do and we wish you all the best in the future.

Our best regards

Re: Casey Whitworth:

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Casey for the services that he provided.

Due to health issues, we had to sell our townhouse in a timely fashion. Despite falling property values, Casey was able to find a buyer and we were offered very close to our asking price. We have bought and sold many properties in the past 30 years, Casey is the most respectful, courteous and professional agent we have ever met. Whether Buying or Selling, I would strongly recommend that Casey Whitworth be your first agent you call.

Thank you Casey, We look forward to meeting with you when it's time to sell our condo.

John and Ian Frame.

To Whom it may concern,

I would like to say that in the past several months that I have had occasion to work with Casey on my huge decision to "sell or not to sell" and move. I have never found him to be anxious to get my house and make a sale. Quite the opposite. He has advocated on more than one occasion that I am well off where I am, and might not improve my status by going through the trauma of a move. At the same time, i was never brushed off, but always welcomed with whatever new ideas I came up with, even when they were not that practical or workable. I have come to think of him as a good councillor and caring friend, very different from so many others out there who just want to make their sale and move on to the next target.

I have been impressed by the ever increasing knowledge he displays, i.e. always learning and growing in his profession. This along with his caring attitude definitely separates him from the pack today, and reminds me of a Realtor we used to take for granted in years past.

I can highly recommend him to anyone embarking on this difficult and potentially dangerous task of buying and selling a house.

Dear Reader,

We highly recommend Casey Whitworth as a realtor. He works with passion and dedication. Casey more than anything communicated clearly the existing residential market and selling process. He used social media and his realtor team within Re-max to full advantage, and successfully sold our home. We appreciated his personal attention to our particular concerns and he was available at all times to complete the task. If you are thinking of listing your property, we strongly recommend using Casey!

Sincerely

RE: CASEY WHITWORTH – ReMAX

We would like to take this opportunity to thank Casey for the excellent service we received from him. Casey was professional, cordial and an absolute gentleman whenever we had a discussion, meeting, etc.

We approached ReMAX at a time when our world seemed to be imploding around us. That's when we met Casey. He was empathetic, supportive and understanding of our situation and was able to assure us that he would be able to help us – not only find a new house, but also put us in contact with external companies who would be able to help us during this transition.

To prospective buyers, Casey will go out of his way to find a place that will fit your needs. I have done my own searches on various websites, and when I forwarded the information to Casey, it was never a problem for him to dig in and find out if what is advertised is really what we may be interested in.

Recently our situation has changed and our world is not spinning as much or as fast as it did about 4 months ago, hence our decision to not go ahead with the sale of our townhouse.

Casey, we wish you the very best. May your future with ReMAX be bright and colorfull; may you spend many more years doing a job that you love in the company of a great team!

Best wishes

John & Marlise Foster
